

Bearsted Round Table Press Release
The Bearsted Crop Circle
Does Bearsted Round Table have links with Extra-Terrestrials?

First sightings of a 300ft diameter crop circle on the outskirts of Bearsted, near Maidstone Kent were received on the morning of Tuesday 8th August. The crop circle depicts the Round Table logo, which would give rise to the question of: Does Bearsted Round Table have links with Extra-Terrestrials or is there a simpler answer?

Here in fact lies the answer. On Monday 7th August under the watchful eye of programme officer Guy Osbourne and a thank you for the kind permission of local farmer Paul Burden, Bearsted Round Table embarked on their most challenging publicity exercise to date. They created a crop circle in the form of the Round Table logo to draw attention to Round Table as an organisation and the social and charitable works it undertakes.

Many people have heard of the name 'Round Table' without really knowing what they do and Bearsted's division thought this would be an ideal and novel exercise to raise the profile. Round Table is an organisation that develops the acquaintance of professional men between the ages of 18-45 through the medium of their various occupations. It offers individuals the opportunity to serve the community and cultivate the highest ideals in business, professional and civic traditions.

Round Table takes part in numerous charitable events throughout the year including Children in Need together with supporting local charitable organisations. Bearsted Round Table recently undertook a challenging cycle ride in the New Forest to raise money for the designated charity of this year's Chairman Ian Walters; the Maidstone Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Together with the charity work, numerous social and sporting events are organised throughout the year giving members the chance to relax and participate in events, such as the crop circle, that they may never have tried before.
